Leadership Medina County Awareness Breakfast Features Connie Dieken

Connie Dieken, named "One of America's Top 5 Speakers of 2011" by Speaking.com, and one of the nation's most in-demand authorities on influential communication, will be the keynote speaker at the Leadership Medina County Awareness Breakfast on February 16.

Dieken coaches leaders at organizations including: Apple, McDonald's, Moen, The Cleveland Clinic and American Greetings. Her renowned "Connect, Convey, Convince" method is a proven winner for organizations looking to develop powerful, influential communicators who motivate others and achieve high-performance results. In addition, her work has been featured in the Wall Street Journal, USA Today, CNBC, Crain's Business and dozens of publications across the country.

The Awareness Breakfast will be held on Thursday, February 16, 2012 at Weymouth Grand Ballroom, 3946 Weymouth Rd., Medina, from 7:30 a.m. until 9 a.m. Breakfast will be served at 7:45 a.m. Following the program, Dieken will be available for signing of her book "Talk Less, Say More."

This is an opportunity to hear a nationally recognized speaker and to learn more about Leadership Medina County's "signature" program, The Class Year. Alumni and board members will be available to share their LMC experiences and answer questions.

The cost is $25 per person. Please RSVP by February 8. Checks can be mailed to Leadership Medina County at 39 Public Square, Suite 202, Medina, OH 44256 or register online at www.leadershipmedinacounty.org. For further information, contact Lucy or Kathy at (330) 721-7118 or email admin@leadershipmedinacounty.org.
